Administrative Information

- Provenance: The Johannes Deinzer Collection was among a number of archival materials accessioned from the Burke's non-circulating collection of manuscript materials. Deinzer's notebook was among a large amount of unprocessed material that was organized in 2016/2017 with funds provided by the Henry Luce Foundation and the E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Foundation.
- Access: Archival papers are available to registered readers for consultation by appointment only. Please contact archives staff by email to burkespecial@library.columbia.edu, or by postal mail to The Burke Library address on page 1, as far in advance as possible. Burke Library staff is available for inquiries or to request a consultation on archival or special collections research.
- Access Restrictions: The collection is unrestricted to readers. Certain materials, however, are in a fragile condition, and this may necessitate restriction in handling and copying.
- Preferred Citation: UTS1: Johannes Deinzer Notebook, 1894, the Burke Library at Union Theological Seminary, Columbia University in the City of New York.

Biography

Johannes Deinzer was born on September 2, 1842 and died on January 25, 1897. He was involved with the Lutheran Church throughout his career, most notably as an assistant to Johann Konrad (J.K.) Wilhelm Löhe (alternately spelled Loehe), a Bavarian Lutheran minister, neo-Lutheran writer whose influence in the Bavarian church extended across several continents, including his co-founding of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod (LCMS) in the United States. Deinzer's notebook consists of lecture notes, presumably taken at Union, of a lecture on doctrinal theology given by Gustav Schmidt in 1894. Materials are handwritten in German and bound in library boards.

Collection Scope and Content Note

This collection consists of a notebook of Deinzer's notes, handwritten in German and taken from Schmidt's "Dogmatik" lecture. Contents consist of 423 pages in a single volume.

Processing

This notebook is maintained in its original library bindings, secured with cotton ties.
