Administrative Information

- Provenance: The papers are part of the Union Theological Seminary Archives, which comprises institutional and administrative records of the Seminary, combined with the papers of many organizations, scholars, pastors, laypersons, and others connected with the school. The materials in this collection were part of a large group of unprocessed material that was organized in 2015.
- Access: Archival papers are available to registered readers for consultation by appointment only. Please contact archives staff by email to burkearchives@library.columbia.edu, or by postal mail to The Burke Library address on page 1, as far in advance as possible. Burke Library staff is available for inquiries or to request a consultation on archival or special collections research.
- Access Restrictions: The collection is unrestricted to readers. Certain materials, however, are in a fragile condition, and this may necessitate restriction in handling and copying.
- Preferred Citation: Item description, UTS 1: Paul Edwin Spiecker, 1933-1936, series #, box #, and folder #, The Burke Library at Union Theological Seminary, Columbia University in the City of New York.

Biography

Paul Edwin Spiecker was born in Philadelphia, PA in 1908. He graduated from the Pennington School in New Jersey in 1929 and Boston University in 1933 prior to attending the Union Theological Seminary. The Reverend Paul Edwin Spiecker attended UTS from 1933-1936, and went on to work as Pastor of Trinity Church in Stony Point, NY. Reverend Spiecker died in 2000.

Collection Scope and Content Note

Paul Edwin Spiecker took meticulous notes on the classes he attended. His papers include type written and hand written lecture notes, exams, and papers. Current seminary students at UTS or elsewhere may find these records enlightening, as they show how UTS courses have evolved over the past decades. Papers and exams contain written remarks by professors. Researchers may also find interesting several booklets published in the 1930s by various Temperance Societies. Of particular note is an abstract of a paper, "The Technique of Criticism," read for the Browning Society in London on October 22, 1935 by Professor Stanley Hopper, who taught Practical Theology at UTS.

The collection is organized in two series:

- Series 1: Class Notes, 1933-1936 (5 boxes, 2.50 lin. ft.)
This series contains class notes, papers, and exams on the following courses: The Old Testament, The New Testament, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology, and The Reinterpretation of Life in History, Religious Education, and the History of Religion.

The course instructors include: Dr. John Baillie, Dr. Bewer, Prof. Van Dusen, Dr. Lynn Harold Hough, Prof. Bruce Curry, Prof. Harry Emerson Fosdick, Prof. Stanley Hopper, Dr.

Edwin Lewis, Dr. E.W. Lyman, Dr. Cyril Richardson, Prof. Scott, and Prof. Paul Tillich. The paper, "The Technique of Criticism," read for the Browning Society in London on October 22, 1935 by Professor Stanley Hopper is located in Box 4 Folder 3.

- Series 2: General, 1933-1936 (1 box, 0.25 lin. ft.)

Within this series are booklets from the NJ Temperance Society, The Scientific Temperance Federation Bulletin from 1938, and a booklet on "Alcohol Problems Visualized" published by the National Forum.

Of note are several parody songs written by Spiecker and another student poking fun at several of UTS's professors listed above. Also included is a love song to "Ruth" composed by Spiecker in 1933.

Processing

Materials were placed in new acid-free folders and boxes. Acidic items were separated from one another by interleaving with acid-free paper as needed. Any items in an advanced state of deterioration were placed in Mylar envelopes.
