Biography

Ralph W. Sockman was born on October 1st 1889 in Mt. Vernon, Ohio. He studied at Ohio Wesleyan University and in 1913 received an M.A. from Columbia University. In 1916 he graduated from Union Theological Seminary and married Zella Endly that same year. He went on to receive his Ph.D. from Columbia University.

Sockman completed 34 seasons as a featured speaker of the Sunday morning NBC radio network's National Radio Pulpit, a post also held by Harry Emerson Fosdick. He was pastor emeritus of the Christ Church (Methodist) in New York City for 44 years and president of the Board of World Peace of the Methodist Church from 1928 to 1960. In 1948 he was elected as director, for his lifetime, of the Hall of Fame for Great Americans.

Sockman served as Associate Professor of Practical Theology at Union Theological Seminary from 1950 to 1957. He also served as Visiting Professor of Homiletics at Yale Divinity School. From 1963 to 1964, he filled the Harry Emerson Fosdick Visiting Professor position at Union Theological Seminary. Sockman was the author of over twenty books, including Live for Tomorrow, Higher Happiness, and Now to Live! (reprinted in 2007), and wrote a nationally syndicated column entitled Lift for Living.

Collection Scope and Content Note

This small collection consists of 5 folders of mimeographed sermons organized into a single series.

- Series 1: Radio Pulpit Addresses, 1937- 1945 (1 box, 0.25 lin. ft.)

This series contains many of Sockman's addresses from National Broadcasting Company's (NBC) radio program the National Radio Pulpit, organized by date. Included in the series are also addresses delivered by guest speakers in Sockman's absence. These speakers include Dr. Fred Field Goodsell, Dr. William Thomson Hanzche, Dr.

Alfred Grant Walton, Dr. Leslie Bates Moss, Dr. L. Wendell Fifield, and Dr. Samuel McCrea Cavert. Each folder includes a list in which the addresses are itemized by date and title.

Processing

Staples were removed from materials and folded items were flattened. Materials were placed in new acid-free folders and boxes. Acidic items were separated from one another by interleaving with acid-free paper as needed.
